MEDIA POLICIES

STRIKE AS ONE
ARIZONA RATTLERS

Welcome to the 2021 Indoor Football League season. In an effort to continue to provide a professional working environment, the following guidelines have been established for the upcoming season.

CREDENTIALS Access to Arizona Rattlers football games for accredited working media will require proper credentials. All credentials are non-transferable, and any unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from Gila River Arena and confiscation of the credential.

Season credentials will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television and established radio stations making reasonable requests on company letterhead. Please indicate those persons who will be using each credential.

Season and single-game credentials will be issued only to those who make requests on company letterhead. These requests can be sent by email to scusumano@azrattlers.com and must be requested by Wednesday prior to the game. Pre-arranged credentials may be picked up at the media will-call at the northeast press entrance two hours before game time. No credentials will be mailed.

Media must wear credentials in plain view at all times within the arena. Working media with credentials will have access to the press room at designated times, as well as an assigned seat. Your cooperation is required to maintain a professional working atmosphere.

PHOTOGRAPHERS Photo credentials will be issued in the same manner as other credentials. Field access will be available to photographers from media outlets that have received credentials from the Rattlers media office. All photographers must comply with space assignments and shooting regulations. Photographers must shoot from designated areas only. Shooting areas are limited.

PARKING Members of the media who are covering the Rattlers game will be able to park in the media garage. The garage entrance is located south of the building on the corner of First Street and Jackson. All media that contact media relations will be on a list to receive access into the garage. These requests should be made at the same time as credential requests.

PRESS ENTRANCE The press entrance is located at Gate 1, which is the South-East corner of the Arena. Media members with proper Rattlers credentials will be admitted through this entrance. If a media representative requested credentials for a single game, they also can be picked up at this location. The press entrance will open 90 minutes before game time. Credentials will not be recognized at other arena entrances.

PRESS ROOM The Rattlers media work room can be accessed through the press entrance and by taking the elevator down to the event level. The media work room, equipped with telephones, electrical outlets and press materials, will be open90 minutes before kick-off, during halftime intermission and for post-game work.

GAME-NIGHT SERVICES Statistics will be furnished, including pre-game notes, halftime and final stats. All information will be available in the media work room. Fax service also will be available.

RADIO AND TELEVISION Electronic media representing the visiting team must contact the Rattlers media relations office to ensure broadcast locations and lines. Three business telephones for visiting radio will be furnished by the Rattlers, but specific broadcast loops will have to be ordered by the station.

Statisticians and spotters are available to assist radio and television broadcasts by contacting Media Relations.

PRACTICES All Rattlers practices are open to the media. Contact Media Relations Front Office to confirm practice schedules from week-to-week.

For questions or assistance, contact Steven Cusumano at scusumano@azrattlers.com.

PHOENIX SUNS ARENA

STRIKE AS ONE
ARIZONA RATTLERS

For more than a quarter-century, our downtown arena has been vital to the growth and development of our city's urban core. The transformation of Phoenix Suns Arena places us as among the top sports and entertainment destinations in the country and makes Downtown Phoenix a true 24-hour city. The reimagined arena features state-of-the-art improvements that will allow us to deliver a world-class guest experience to all who step inside the doors for years to come.

+ The Pavilion design creates a new main entry experience and grand lobby that welcomes fans into a celebratory space. The Pavilion has been significantly opened up, allowing guests to see straight through into the bowl with sights of the new center hung scoreboard. Anchoring the reimagined Pavilion is Arizona's largest sports bar, which stretches 60 feet long and is surrounded by more than 7,000 square feet of high-resolution LED video walls that will feature dynamic content for game days, concerts and events. The curved LED walls feature more than 40.8 million LEDs

+ Two new Corner Bars will be marquee destinations for all arena guests to enjoy on the northeast and northwest corners of the lower concourse.

+ New Daktronics center hung scoreboard is six times larger than predecessor, stretching 3,100 square feet and the resolution is six times clearer. Measures 26 feet tall by 36 feet wide and weights more than 50,000 pounds. New center hung features 8.1 million LEDs and roughly the size of nearly 300 60-inch televisions.

+ Two new LED ribbon boards, which stretch more than 1,900 feet in total ring the upper and lower bowls, replacing the static signage and previous single ribbon.

+ In partnership with Verizon, Phoenix Suns Arena now features new 5G Ultra Wideband Service for the entire venue – one of the few professional sports facilities in the country with Verizon 5G

+ Arena system features new musco lighting system which will provide "theater lighting" for game days. Upgraded arena sound systems to provide crystal-clear audio for fans.

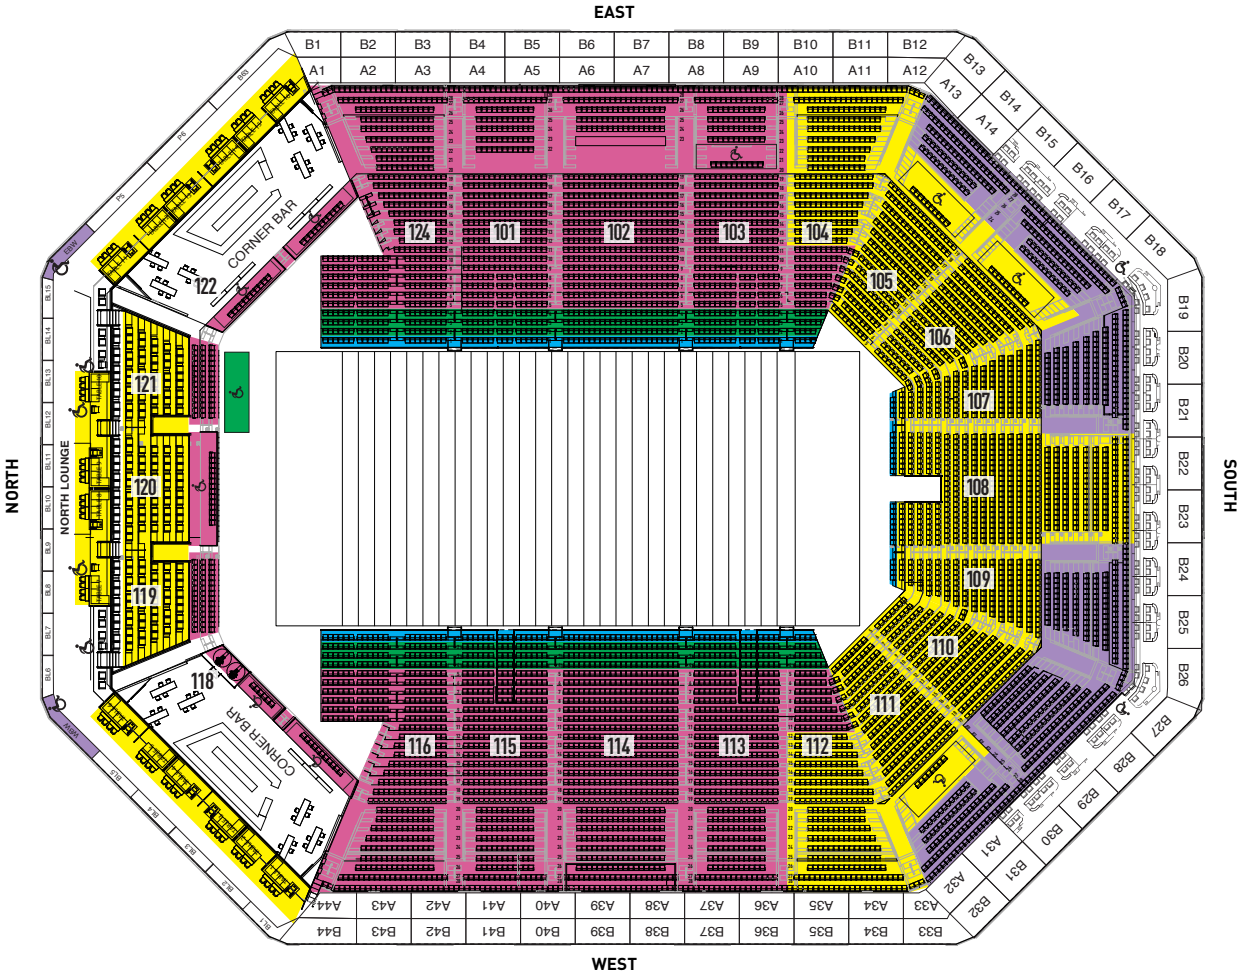

+ 15,100 brand-new, cushioned seats were installed to replace every single seat in the upper and lower bowls.

RON SHURTS, MAJORITY OWNER / CEO

Ron Shurts took over as majority owner and CEO of the Rattlers in 2011. Since then, the Rattlers have gone on to appear in six World Championships in seven seasons, winning three straight ArenaBowl Championships and the United Bowl Championship.

Shurts has been a part of the Rattlers since the beginning. He has been a season-ticket holder since the team's first snap in 1992.

A prominent Valley entrepreneur and co-founder of Scottsdale- based Annexus™, Shurts has more than 25 years of experience in financial services, sales and management, and has trained thousands of financial professionals. He also is the owner of The Quantum (formally Shurwest Financial Group), a national marketing firm for financial advisors, which is also based in Scottsdale.

Before he founded Shurwest Financial Group in 1985, Shurts was an insurance agent selling life insurance, fixed-indexed annuities and long term care insurance to farmers in western Nebraska.

An avid golfer and Nebraska Cornhuskers' fan, he is active in the community. Shurts is a sponsor of Phoenix Suns Charities, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Arizona and The Salvation Army. In 2014 Shurts accepted the Jason Foundation Community Service Award for his, and the Rattlers' dedication to the community. He is married to Mia and is a proud father to his son AJ.

- Overall head coaching record 211-70 (75%)
- Has won the most games in the Arena Football League since 2008
- Three-time Coach of the Year (2003 af2, 2011 and 2016 Arena Football League)
- Coached 2011, 12,13, 14, 16, 17 and 2019 Arizona Rattlers to the championship game
- Highest winning percentage in Arena Football League history (74%)
- In 2018, passed Danny White to be the winningest Coach in Arizona Rattlers history, and did so in 20 less games (Danny White 141-65 .684, Kevin Guy 142-45 .745)

Under Coach Guy, the Arizona Rattlers earned their seventh trip to the championship game in only nine seasons in 2019. Along with having the Rattlers first undefeated season, the offense led the league in points-per-game (63.7) and in yards-per-game. Arizona also set the record for most points in a game (91) against the San Diego Strike Force on April 6, and recorded their first shut out on defense against the Cedar Rapids River Kings on June 1st.

In 2018, the Arizona Rattlers led the IFL in a variety of categories. On offense, the Rattlers led the league in scoring with 103 touchdowns and 746 points. Arizona's running game led the way with 1,750 rushing yards and 57 rushing touchdowns. The Rattlers' defense led the league with 24 sacks, while their special teams led the league with an average kickoff return of 19.3 yards and 204 punt return yards. The Rattlers also led the IFL with the fewest penalties, committing only 75 infractions for 527 yards (275.9).

In 2017, the Rattlers entered their inaugural season into the Indoor Football League and under Coach Guy's leadership, they finished their first season as the IFL Champions. Guy's offense led the league in rushing, and was second in both total offense and offensive touchdowns. The team finished the season on a 12-game win streak that was topped off by the United Bowl victory over the six-time defending champion Sioux Falls Storm.

Guy is the only head coach in history to win both an ArenaBowl (3x) and the United Bowl.

In 2016, Guy led the AFL's most-storied franchise to their fifth ArenaBowl in six seasons. The offense that year led the league in scoring by more than 5 points per game than the second best team. When the Rattlers left the AFL at the end of 2016, Guy ended up the AFL's all-time winningest coach by percentage (.739).

Guy is a member of two Halls of Fame; the University of West Alabama Hall of Fame, and the af2 Hall of Fame. Guy is also currently nominated for the AFL Hall of Fame

In 2014, Guy led the Rattlers to its fourth consecutive ArenaBowl appearance and third straight world championship, a 72-32 victory over the Cleveland Gladiators. The Rattlers posted an AFL-record 14 straight victories to start the season, and ended the regular season at 15-3 and going undefeated on their home turf at Ak-Chin Field at US Airways Center. »» continued

Guy's offense in 2014 was explosive, scoring 164 touchdowns and averaging a league-leading 63.9 points per game. The Rattlers offense under Guy, was led by its opposing pass offense that threw for over 5,000 yards and averaged a staggerring 8.4 yards per attempt.

In 2013, Guy led the Rattlers to its third consecutive ArenaBowl appearance and second straight world championship, a 48-39 victory over the Philadelphia Soul. The Rattlers posted a then AFL-record 18 victories (first set by the team in 2011).

Under Guy, Arizona's offense led the league in scoring with 170 touchdowns and averaging 66.8 points per game. The Rattlers also fielded one of the league's most stingy defenses, allowing only 48.1 points per game, second to Philadelphia's 46.6. Guy also saw eight of his players receive All-Arena honors, including two first-teamers.

In 2012, Guy led Arizona to its first ArenaBowl championship in more than a decade. The Rattlers won 16 games, earning back-to-back West Division and National Conference championships. The offense scored 158 touchdowns during the regular season and averaged 62.1 points per game, while the defense forced 45 turnovers and allowed 48.9 points per game.

Guy's 2011 team piled up 160 touchdowns during the regular season, averaging 61.9 points per game. The defense, meanwhile, forced 54 turnovers for a plus-34 turnover ratio – the best in the AFL – while holding opposing teams to 46.4 points per game. While the Rattlers would make their first ArenaBowl appearance since 2004, they would come up short in the final seconds, losing 73-70 to the Jacksonville Sharks.

An arenafootball2 Hall of Fame inductee, Guy has proven to be a consistent winner, owning a 72.6 winning percentage (122-46) as a head coach. In 2011, he was named NFL Network Coach of the Year.

In 2010, the Rattlers would post their first winning season (10-6) since 2004 and reach the National Conference semifinals, losing 57-49 to the Spokane Shock.

While the AFL reorganized in 2009, Guy continued his duties with the Rattlers and served as a consultant to the general manager and head coach of the Rio Grande Valley Dorados (af2). Guy assisted with all aspects of the organization, including business and football operations. With the help of Guy's advisement, Rio Grande Valley returned to the af2 playoffs after failing to reach the postseason the previous year.

Guy joined the Rattlers on Aug. 10, 2007. He had been serving as defensive coordinator for the San Jose SaberCats, which had just won ArenaBowl XXI. The Rattlers, meanwhile, were coming off the second-worst record in the league (4-12). Guy immediately went to work. He retained only three players from the 2007 team and began the 2008 season with nine rookies and seven second-year players. Arizona would win four more games over the previous year and host a first-round playoff game against Grand Rapids. Guy finished second in voting for AFL Coach of the Year, one of only four coaches to receive votes for the award. Guy left the af2 with the most wins in the history of the league when he joined the SaberCats in 2005. His 52 victories came in his four seasons, an average of 13 wins per season. He picked up a Coach of the Year award along the way and finished with a 73.2 winning percentage while leading the Tennessee Valley Vipers (2002-04) and Dorados (2005).

In 2005, Guy led the Texas-based Dorados to a 10-6 regular-season record and a trip to the league's National Conference championship game. The Dorados' last victory that season, a 65-42 decision over Tulsa in the playoffs, lifted him to the top of the league's coaching leaders.

With Tennessee Valley, Guy's teams won 39 of 48 regular-season games and claimed a division title each season. In 2003, the Vipers won their first 14 games and reached the conference championship game. Guy would be named Coach of the Year.

Guy's teams consistently were ranked near the top of all major statistical categories during his tenure as an af2 coach. He had 31 players advance from the af2, with five joining the National Football League. He had 14 players earn All-af2 recognition.

In 2001, Guy became the defensive coordinator for the AFL's Florida Bobcats, where his defense limited opposing teams to fewer than 30 points per game twice and forced 26 turnovers. Florida also averaged six defensive stops per game.

Guy joined the coaching ranks after an AFL playing career that lasted four seasons. He began the 2000 season as the defensive coordinator of the New Jersey Red Dogs. At 26, he was elevated to interim head coach for the last four games. His team was ranked fourth in the AFL in total defense and fifth in pass defense. Over those final four games, the Red Dogs averaged almost 10 more points per game than over the first 10 games.

As a player, Guy spent four seasons with the Minnesota Fighting Pike (1996), the Red Dogs (1997-99) and the Orlando Predators (1999), primarily as a wide receiver and defensive back. He helped the Predators reach ArenaBowl XIII.

Guy attended the University of West Alabama from 1991 to 1995. He was born Dec. 6, 1972, in Birmingham, Ala..

2021 RATTLERS COACHING STAFF

KANI KAUAHI, ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE

Kani Kauahi will be entering his 12th season with the Rattlers, and has helped coach the team to four world titles. Last season, Kauahi's offensive line allowed the second fewest sacks in the IFL, while also leading the league in rushing.

The Hawaii native spent the early portion of his professional coaching career working with teams in the Canadian Football League, including the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (2006), Ottawa Renegades (2002-05) and BC Lions (1998-2000). He also logged one season with the San Francisco Demons (2001) of the XFL.

Kauahi began his coaching career in 1995 as the offensive line coach at Mesa Community College. He also served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Arizona Cardinals (1996-97).

After playing college football at Arizona State University and the University of Hawaii, Kauahi spent 11 years as a center in the National Football League – twice with the Phoenix Cardinals (1993, 1989-91). He also played for the Kansas City Chiefs (1992), Green Bay Packers (1988) and Seattle Seahawks (1982-86).

From 2008-2012, Kauahi coached offensive line / running backs at the University of Waterloo , in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada.

Kauahi was born Sept. 6, 1959, in Kekaha, Hawaii. He and his wife, Gay, have three children: Kalei, Kamana and Hana, and ten grandchildren.

JEFF JARNIGAN, DEFENSIVE LINE / SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

Jeff Jarnigan will be entering his fifth season with the Rattlers, after joining the team in 2016. Jarnigan spent his first four years with the organization as the Assistant General Manager, before being named the Rattlers' General Manager in preparation for the 2021 season.

Prior to joining the Rattlers, he also spent seven seasons with the San Jose Sabercats in a variety of different coaching capacities, in addition to being the defensive coordinator for the Austin Wranglers in 2004. In addition to his coaching background, Jarnigan brings 21 years of sales experience with him to the Rattlers.

Before serving as the Rattlers' Assistant General Manager for each of the past four seasons, Jarnigan also served as Director of Corporate Sales for the San Jose Sabercats, overseeing the team's day-to-day business operations throughout his duration with the team.

Jarnigan also carries head coaching experience with him, having served as head coach for the IFL's Minnesota Rage in 2000, before he was named head coach of the Oklahoma City Yard Dogz from 2005-2006. From 1988 to 1999, Jarnigan was employed by four different collegiate programs: (Fort Hays State University, Bethel College, Morningside College and Carleton College), serving mostly as either an offensive line or defensive line coach.

The Midwest City, Oklahoma native played football at Southwestern College from 1982-1987.

2021 RATTLERS COACHING STAFF

ROD WINDSOR, WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

Rod Windsor will be entering his second season as the Wide Receivers coach for the Arizona Rattlers.

Windsor spent seven seasons with the Rattlers as a wide receiver. He is a three-time ArenaBowl Champion, twice with the Rattlers and once with the Washington Valor, and was named ArenaBowl MVP of ArenaBowl XXVI. He was named All-Arena six times in his career (First Team in 2010, 2011, and 2014; Second Team in 2013, 2015, and 2016) and was the 2010 AFL Rookie of the Year. Windsor was also the 2009 Offensive Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year in af2.

Windsor played for the Cleveland Browns from 2010-12. During his collegiate career at Western New Mexico, he led the team in both passing yards (1,361) and rushing yards (886).

Windsor coached North High School in Phoenix from 2017-18, serving as a QB/WR coach in 2017. He rejoined the Rattlers organization in 2018 as Offensive Coordinator.

HURTIS CHINN, QUARTERBACKS / RUNNING BACKS COACH

Hurtis Chinn is entering his first season with the Rattlers and his ninth as a coach in the IFL.

Chinn most recently spent time as the Tucson Sugar Skulls' offensive coordinator in 2019, when the team ranked fourth in the league in scoring with 52 points per game. In 2018, Chinn was a member of the IFL Champion Iowa Barnstormers, as the team's assistant head coach and wide receivers coach.

Before joining Iowa, Chinn coached for six years with the Nebraska Danger, including as the head coach in his final season with the team. Prior to beginning his coaching career, Chinn played three years in the IFL for the River City Rage and the Danger. Chinn played college football at Western New Mexico University.

HUNTER CHARNESKI, DIRECTOR OF PHYSICAL PREPARATION

Hunter Charneski joins the Rattlers for his first season with the team. Prior to joining the Rattlers, Charneski received his Bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from Grand Valley State University in 2013 and earned his Master's degree in Performance Enhancement and Injury Prevention from California University of Pennsylvania in 2015. Charneski went on to contribute to GVSU's athletics department in a variety of sports performance capacities. He was the Men's Basketball team's Head Strength & Conditioning Coach during the 2016-2017 season, as well as the Gameday Nutritional Preparation Consultant for the school's football team during the 2016 season. In November of 2019, Charneski was a consultant for the Los Angeles Rams on hamstring rehab protocol.

Charneski has spent each of his past two summers conditioning young athletes working towards careers in the military/special forces. From 2016 to 2019, he also operated his own private training facility in Michigan. Charneski is an author on the side from his career in physical preparation. He has written and published two books about sprinting.

2021 RATTLERS TEAM STAFF

TODD CONNER, EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Todd Conner is in his 10th season with the Rattlers and his seventh as equipment manager.

Conner earned the Arena Football League's Equipment Manager of the Year award in back-to-back years (2015-16) while with the team.

Conner joined the Rattlers as a football operations intern in 2010. He had been the general manager of Barro's Pizza in Mesa for 30 years.

Conner was a wide receiver on Fullerton College's team that won the South Coast Conference championship in 1981. He attended Esperanza High School in Anaheim, CA, and was a part of the school's first state championship in 1979.

Conner resides in Gilbert, Arizona with his wife, Audrey. He and his wife have two children, Brianna and Kara. Conner also has three granddaughters, Kaydence, Abigail and Josie.

STEVEN CUSUMANO, DIRECTOR OF DIGITAL MEDIA & PUBLIC RELATIONS

Steven Cusumano is entering his first season as a member of the Arizona Rattlers.

Cusumano joins the Rattlers after having spent the majority of his career working in professional baseball, serving in a variety broadcasting, production and media relations roles for Minor League affiliates of the Houston Astros and Los Angeles Angels, as well as the Tampa Bay Rays and Chicago Cubs MLB clubs.

The Staten Island, New York native graduated from Arizona State University with his Bachelor's degree in Sports Journalism. During his junior and senior years at ASU, he also broadcasted play-by-play for Pac-12 Network's online streaming coverage of ASU Baseball and Softball events.

As a member of the Rattlers, Cusumano manages all elements within the digital media and public relations departments, including website administration, social media management and content creation. Cusumano handles all media inquiries and can be contacted at scusumano@azrattlers.com.

JOSH MONTANEZ, TEAM OPERATIONS / QUALITY CONTROL

Josh Montanez is entering his first full season as a member of the Arizona Rattlers, after joining the team as a player personnel intern in 2020.

A third generation graduate of Arizona State University, Montanez studied Sports Business and Law, earning his Bachelor's degree in 2017 and his Master's degree in 2018. During his time in school, he worked as a recruiting assistant for ASU's Football program from 2018-2019.

As a member of the Rattlers, Montanez plays a role in all elements of team operations, including football operations, quality control and retail.

Born and raised in Chandler, Arizona, Montanez is a six-year Army veteran who toured in Afghanistan as a medic.

2021 RATTLERS FRONT OFFICE

KEVIN GUY, PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Kevin Guy enters his 15th year as a member of the Rattlers front office and his first as the Team President. This year will also mark Guy's 12th season as the Rattlers' Head Coach. Under his direction, the Rattlers have appeared in seven championship games over the last nine years, including winning four championships.

On top of Guy's proven track record of success as the Rattlers Head Coach, he brings over 20 years of experience working in sales.

Coinciding with his role as Team President and Head Coach of the Rattlers, Guy has also played an integral role in the Indoor Football League's growth, serving as a member of the league's Expansion Committee.

In just over two years, Guy has helped the league expand from six to 16 teams, stretching from coast to coast. In 2019, Kevin and his wife Cathy brought their own expansion team, the Tucson Sugar Skulls, to the IFL. Guy is also a partner of the Birmingham Bulls ownership group, which brought professional hockey back to his hometown of Birmingham, Alabama, after an absence of 17 years.

JEFF JARNIGAN, GENERAL MANAGER

Jeff Jarnigan will be entering his fifth season with the Rattlers, after joining the team in 2016. Jarnigan spent his first four years with the organization as the Assistant General Manager, before being named the Rattlers' General Manager in preparation for the 2021 season.

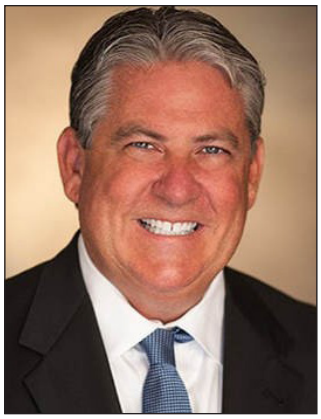

Prior to joining the Rattlers, he also spent seven seasons with the San Jose Sabercats in a variety of different coaching capacities. He was also the defensive coordinator for the Austin Wranglers in 2004. In addition to his coaching background, Jarnigan brings 21 years of sales experience with him to the Rattlers.

Before serving as the Rattlers' Assistant General Manager for each of the past four seasons, Jarnigan served as the Director of Corporate Sales for the San Jose Sabercats, overseeing the team's day-to-day business operations throughout his duration with the team.

The Midwest City, Oklahoma native played football at Southwestern College from 1982-1987.

Lacayo joins the Rattlers for his fifth season in the IFL, and his 10th total in professional football. He has played in the AFL, the CIF and most recently, the XFL. Lacayo began 2020 with the XFL's Seattle Dragons, before the season was cut short due to COVID-19. In five games with Seattle, Lacayo totaled seven touchbacks and converted three field goals, including a season-long 47-yarder. Lacayo spent the 2019 IFL season with San Diego, earning Second Team All-IFL honors. During the 2019 season he converted a total of 10 field goals, including a long of 53 yards, while leading the IFL in PAT% (94), and scoring over 12 points in two different games. In the past, Lacayo has earned NFL tryouts with the San Francisco 49ers and the Chicago Bears. Across Lacayo's career in professional football, he has played against the Rattlers more times than any other professional team.

The Hayward, California native began his college career at the College of San Mateo and was a two-year captain before earning a scholarship to play at Hastings College in Nebraska. In both 2009 and 2010, Lacayo was named All Nebraska Kicker and Special Teams Player of the Year by the Omaha World-Herald. He holds multiple Hastings school kicking records, including season field goals (first, 14/17), career field goals (second, 25/30), season and career PAT (39/39 and 64/64), and the most kicking points scored (81).

SAFETY SEALS RATTLERS VICTORY OVER STORM

Green Bay, Wisc. – The six-time world champion Arizona Rattlers (1-0) won their first game of the 2019 Indoor Football League season with a 51-21 win over the Green Bay Blizzard (0-1) at the Resch Center in Green Bay, Wisconsin. This is the only time the Rattlers will face the Blizzard this season.

The Rattlers defense came out strong only allowing 21 points in the game and started the scoring off with a safety by DL Josh Gordon. The Rattlers secondary came away with three interceptions, one each by DB Allen Chapman, DB Devin Cockrell, and DB Phillip Henry. The defensive line also had a good night racking up four sacks in total, three by Gordon and one by LB Ricky Wyatt Jr.

Offensively, Arizona played both Quarterbacks, Jeff Ziemba got the start and Verlon Reed Jr. started the whole second half. Ziemba finished the day going 10-for-13, 97 yards and a touchdown. Reed completed four of five for 51 yards. Both Quarterbacks did throw an interception. Rushing for the Rattlers, RB Jabre Lolley, rushed for 88 yards off 14 attempts and scored three touchdowns.

The Rattlers took a nine point lead early after registering a safety by Gordon and then an eight yard touchdown run by Lolley.

The Blizzard scored their first points late in the first from a 14-yard pass from QB Lenorri Footman to Kezlow Smith.

The Rattlers extended their lead again to nine off of a four-yard pass from Ziemba to Lolley. Green Bay again closed the gap from a 35-yard pass from Footman to WR B.J. Hill.

The Rattlers finished off the scoring in the first half off a four-yard run by Ziemba.The Third Quarter was all Rattlers scoring off of a 12-yard run by Reed and a 5-yard run by Lolley.

The Blizzard scored their final points of the game after a one-yard pass from Footman to Smith.

Arizona would score two more times in the fourth, a seven-yard run by Reed and a one-yard run by Lolley.

RATTLERS ROUT RIVER KINGS; 81-37

PHOENIX – The Arizona Rattlers (2-0) opened the home portion of the 2019 Indoor Football League (IFL) season in convincing fashion with an 81-37 victory over the Cedar Rapids River Kings (0-2) in front of 14,470 fans at Talking Stick Resort Arena on Sunday.

The Rattlers offense exploded for 12 touchdowns on 359 yards of total offense. RB Jabre Lolley led the way on offense with 157 all-purpose yards and six touchdowns. QB Verlon Reed Jr. went 6-of-7 passing for 120 yards, three passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown. QB Jeff Ziemba came in for the second half and threw for 75 yards and two touchdowns.

On defense for Arizona, DL Joshua Gordon had two more sacks and DL Nikolaus D'Avanzo had a sack and a blocked field goal. Rattlers Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy liked what he saw defensively where they had to have some offensive players fill in.

"We had to bring Holland, one of our offensive line, over to play d-line, we brought Epps in to play some snaps on defensive back in the second half. I was pretty pleased with how they played," Guy said.

Lolley has had an impressive start to his rookie season, compiling 10 touchdowns in his first two games. He and Ziemba were teammates at both St. Mark's High School and at Shepherd University. Lolley said Ziemba helped introduced him to the Rattlers in the off-season.

"I came out here and it really was a good fit," Lolley said. "I appreciate him seeing something that I can accomplish."

For Cedar Rapids, QB Kurt Palandech was 15-of-27 passing for 114 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. RB Nathaniel Chavious had 16 carries for 89 yards and one touchdown.

The Rattlers struck for two touchdowns early, thanks to the work of their special teams. Jarrod Harrington returned the opening kickoff all the way to the Cedar Rapids 19-yard line. Two plays later, Lolley scored on a 5-yard run to give the Rattlers a quick 7-0 lead. Following a 50-yard field goal from Cedar Rapids kicker Henry Nell, Dezmon Epps returned the ensuing kickoff for a touchdown to give Arizona a 14-3 lead just 4:03 into the contest.

On the ensuing River Kings' possession, Davontae Merriweather appeared to get the ball back on an interception, but a fumble allowed Cedar Rapids to continue the drive. Arizona's defense held Cedar Rapids to another Nell field goal try, which missed wide left.

The Rattlers would score again the following drive as Reed found Epps for a 34-yard touchdown pass to increase the lead to 18.

The River Kings would get their first touchdown late in the first quarter on a five-play drive ending with a 1-yard run by Nathaniel Chavious. Nell would convert the extra point to cut the Rattlers' lead to 21-10. Arizona would score their fourth touchdown of the period as Reed ran 44 yards for the score. Jimmy Camacho would miss the extra point attempt to keep the score 27-10 at the end of the first quarter.

Cedar Rapids would open the scoring in the second as Palandech found Kahri Kimbrough for a 10-yard touchdown pass, pulling the River Kings back within 10.

Arizona would tack on another six points on the following drive, a five-play, 45-yard possession capped off by a Jamal Miles 4-yard run. On the following kickoff, Arizona would recover an onside kick attempt. Three plays later, Lolley would score his second rushing touchdown on a 6-yard carry to put Arizona up 39-17 with 6:34 left in the half.

The River Kings would answer quickly as Palandech ran the ball 25 yards for a touchdown.

After another strong kickoff return by Harrington, Reed would find Anthony Amos for an 18-yard touchdown to give Arizona a 46-24 lead.

Cedar Rapids' next drive would get down to the Arizona 4-yard line but the Rattlers' defense would hold the River Kings to another Nell field goal.

With seven seconds left in the first half, Reed would connect with Lolley for a 36-yard touchdown pass.

The River Kings would start the second half with the ball and drove deep into Arizona territory, but the Rattlers would make another goal-line stand and force Cedar Rapids to turn the ball over on downs.

The Rattlers' offense would pick up right where it left off on their next possession. Ziemba would start the drive with a 6-yard run and then followed up with a 41-yard touchdown pass to Amos, putting Arizona up 60-27.

Nell would connect on another long field goal, a 43-yard attempt, to cut the Rattlers' lead to 30. Arizona would once again score immediately on their next drive, with Lolley scoring his fourth touchdown of the game on a 34-yard reception from Ziemba.

Nell attempted another 43-yard field goal but the kick was blocked and recovered by D'Avanzo. The Rattlers would score to begin the fourth quarter as Lolley ran it in from 15 yards out.

The River Kings would get back in the end zone as Palandech found Marquel Wade for a 6-yard score.

Following a Cedar Rapids penalty that put Arizona at the River Kings' 5-yard line, Lolley would close out the scoring with his sixth touchdown of the game.

RATTLERS STRIKE DOWN SUGAR SKULLS; 63-28

PHOENIX – The Arizona Rattlers (3-0) won their first ever meeting against an in-state opponent, defeating the Tucson Sugar Skulls (2-1) 63-28 in front of 16,110 fans at Talking Stick Resort Arena on Saturday.

The victory was fueled by a 28-point second quarter, turning a 7-7 deadlock into a 42-14 Rattler lead at halftime.

“I thought the (Tucson) coaching staff did some good things that we weren’t ready for and we kind of adjusted as the game went on,” Rattlers Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy said. “As we got a feel for them and got the turnovers, then the game got a little stronger.”

Rattlers QB Verlon Reed Jr. was 7-of-12 passing for 121 yards and three touchdowns, and also ran for 33 yards on five carries and two rushing touchdowns. RB Jabre Lolley also had two rushing touchdowns and a receiving touchdown. Reed said that despite the slow start to the game, they were able to get things turned around.

“Once we got the ball rolling, we started getting some turnovers and started speeding up the clock, I think the game started to swing in our favor,” Reed said. “We just took momentum and we made sure that we kept it for the rest of the game.

”Offensively for Tucson, RB Mike Jones led the way with 63 rushing yards and two touchdowns on nine carries.

Arizona’s defense came up with another strong performance, holding their opponent to fewer than 30 points for the second time in three games. LB Davontae Merriweather and DL Lance McDowdell both came up with a fumble recovery, while DL Chris McAllister and DL Nikolaus D’Avanzo both had a sack.

“We put in a lot of work, we’re staying focused, and we know what we got to do,” Merriweather said. “We just got to keep practicing.”

For the Sugar Skulls, LB Zach Allen led the team with 11 tackles.

Tucson started with the ball and drove down the field, but Arizona’s defense held them to a field goal attempt by K Diego Marquez, who missed.

After a three-and-out by the Rattlers offense, the Sugar Skulls would get on the board first with a 2-yard run by Jones.Arizona would answer back as Reed found WR Dezmon Epps for a 26-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 7-7.

The Rattlers would take the lead early in the second quarter with 14 points in the span of 1:08. First, D’Avanzo blocked a Marquez field goal kick and DB Dillion Winfrey recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. Then, after McDowdell forced a fumble and recovered the ball, Reed would score on a 3-yard run, putting the Rattlers up 21-7.

The Sugar Skulls would counter with a 16-yard touchdown run by QB Matt Behrendt. On the next Rattlers possession, Reed would find WR Markis Sumpter for a 13-yard pass to restore Arizona’s 14-point advantage.

The Rattlers would add on another seven points in the final minute of the half as Reed threw his third touchdown pass of the game, finding Lolley for a 29-yard completion.Arizona started the second half with the ball.

After Reed found WR Jamal Miles for a completion on fourth-and-10 to keep the drive going, Reed would run it in from the 7 to give the Rattlers a 42-14 lead.

QB Jeff Ziemba would come into the game with 6:07 left in the third quarter and extended Arizona’s lead with a 7-yard touchdown run.The Rattlers would score twice early in the fourth quarter. First, Lolley would run 25 yards to put Arizona up 56-21. Then, on the ensuing kickoff, Epps would force a fumble that Merriweather recovered. Two plays later, Lolley scored from 3 yards out to give Arizona a 42-point lead.

Tucson would get the last score of the contest with QB Jake Medlock finding WR Jarid Brown for a 22-yard touchdown pass.

RATTLERS CONQUER THE STORM; 58-40

PHOENIX – The Arizona Rattlers defeated the visiting Sioux Falls Storm 58-40 to improve to 4-0 on the season in front of 12,265 fans inside the Talking Stick Resort Arena on Sunday afternoon.

Not only do the Rattlers now stand in first place of the Indoor Football League standings, but the victory secured Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy's 200th win of his coaching career.

"I've felt like we've reached these goals as an organization," said Guy. "I've had a lot of good people around me. We've hired good people here. Our coaches have been a huge part of it and obviously the players have been a huge part of it because they got to get it done on the field. The players have to go out and execute, and I think that speaks on behalf of our (coaching) staff and what kind of players we've recruited over the years, and it speaks to the ownership and what kind of ownership we got. I'm very humbled."

Quarterback Jeff Ziemba filled in after Verlon Reed Jr. left the game, and he accounted for three total touchdowns versus Sioux Falls.

"They're one of the best teams in the league," Ziemba said. "And you got to be happy any time you beat them."

The Arizona Rattlers held Sioux Falls to only 127 yards of total offense and forced four turnovers. Dual-threat Storm QB Lorenzo Brown Jr. passed for only 86 yards and nine rushing yards.

Defensive lineman Chris McAllister finished with one sack on Brown Jr. and one fumble recovery in the victory.

"Being conscious of [Brown Jr.] when you rush the passer because he's a guy that will find the escape lane if you give him one," said McAllister. "So when you're rushing, you want to beat the guy, but you also have to be aware to not give up contain on the quarterback and give him room to run."

A 41-yard opening kickoff return by wide receiver Dezmon Epps set up the Rattlers opening drive. Two plays later, Verlon Reed Jr. tossed a nine-yard touchdown pass to Jarrod Harrington who had to leap over his defender to secure the catch. Jimmy Camacho's PAT gave the Rattlers a 7-0 lead.

The Sioux Falls Storm answered right back on their second play from scrimmage with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Lorenzo Brown Jr. to Brandon Sheperd. Miles Bergner's extra point was missed, and the Storm were down 7-6 early.

On Arizona's ensuing possession, Reed Jr. scrambled twice for 20-yards which helped setup a one-yard touchdown scamper by running back Jabre Lolley (his 10th rushing TD of the season). Camacho's successful extra point pushed their lead to 14-6 in the first quarter.

Sioux Falls however, would respond with a five play, 38-yard touchdown drive. Aided by two penalties by the Rattlers defense, Storm running back Calen Campbell took the handoff eight-yards for a touchdown narrowing Arizona's lead to 14-13.

On the next Rattlers possession, quarterback Jeff Ziemba's pass was intercepted by Storm defensive back Matt McKoy (his second interception of the season).

After the interception, the Storm took over on the Arizona 21-yard line, and running back Calen Campbell took the handoff six-yards for a touchdown to give Sioux Falls a 20-13 lead.

The Rattlers would quickly counter with a four play, 25-yard touchdown drive. Wide receiver Dezmon Epps caught two passes on the series which helped set up a 10-yard rushing score for QB Jeff Ziemba. Camacho's PAT was failed, and the score was all knotted up at 20 early in the second quarter.

On the ensuing Storm possession, they were stuffed offensively. A sack by defensive lineman Ricky Wyatt Jr. forced kicker Miles Bergner to attempt a 54-yard field goal, which he missed short which was returned 42-yards by Dezmon Epps.

Two plays later for Arizona, versatile wide receiver/running back Jamal Miles took the handoff from Ziemba and punched it in from four-yards out for another Rattlers touchdown which pushed their lead to 27-20 with 4:30 left before halftime.

Arizona's defense was able to hold the Storm to another field goal attempt on their next offensive series, and this time, Miles Bergner's 38-yard field goal attempt was good to make it 27-23 with one minute before the half.

The Rattlers responded as Jimmy Camacho nailed a 17-yard field goal try to give the Rattlers a 30-23 lead going into the locker room.

Sioux Falls received the opening kickoff after halftime, and immediately coughed up the football on a bad snap. Bandit Davontae Merriweather scooped up the loose ball and ran it in 12-yards for a touchdown. The Rattlers pushed their lead to 37-23 with 13:18 left in the third quarter.

Following the Rattlers defensive score, Storm RB Calen Campbell took the ensuing kickoff 56-yards for a touchdown, narrowing the deficit to seven.

The Rattlers got the ball back, but Lolley fumbled the football after absorbing a hit from Sioux Falls DB Matt McKoy on the first play of the series. The loose ball was recovered by the Storm.

Following the turnover, the Storm had to settle for a field goal attempt after QB Lorenzo Brown Jr. was brought down for a sack by Rattlers DL Chris McAllister. Bergner's kick was good and narrowed Arizona's lead to four midway through the third.

Jeff Ziemba connected with Dezmon Epps for 13 yards, and two penalties on the Sioux Falls defensive unit helped set up a two-yard rushing score by Ziemba (his second of the game) to put the Rattlers up 44-33.

On the following Storm possession, they promptly gave the ball back to the Rattlers after a fumble which was recovered by McAllister.

Four plays following the fumble recovery, Jeff Ziemba ran it in for his third rushing score of the game to push Arizona's advantage to 51-33 early in the fourth.

Storm QB Lorenzo Brown Jr. promptly gave the ball back to the Rattlers after his deep pass attempt was intercepted by defensive back Allen Chapman, his second interception of the season.

Both the Rattlers and the Storm traded turnovers, as both quarterbacks threw interceptions. First, Ziemba's pass was intercepted by Trey Dickerson, and then Brown Jr's was snatched by Phillip Henry.

Arizona would capitalize off Sioux Fall's turnover on the following play when Ziemba found Jamal Miles in the corner of the end zone for his second touchdown of the game. The TD extended the Rattlers' lead to 58-33 midway through the fourth.

The Storm got back on the scoreboard following a one-yard run by Brandon Sheperd to make the score 58-40 with one minute left in the fourth.

RATTLERS GROUND STRIKE FORCE; 91-58

PHOENIX – The Arizona Rattlers (5-0) wrapped up their four-game homestand with a 91-58 victory over the San Diego Strike Force (0-6) at Talking Stick Resort Arena on Saturday.

The 91 points set an all-time Rattlers record; the previous record was 86 points on May 19, 2012 on the road against the Utah Blaze in the Arena Football League. Arizona's previous home record for scoring was 84, done twice, most recently against the Cedar Rapids Titans on April 28, 2018. Arizona K Jimmy Camacho also set a Rattlers record with 13 successful extra point attempts.

WR Jamal Miles played a big role in Arizona's record-setting night with five catches for 70 yards and four touchdowns and had another touchdown on the ground.

"He's done a great job for us since he's been playing for us," Rattlers Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy said. "He did a great job at running routes tonight and catching the ball."

"There was a lot of open space," Miles said. "We took advantage of it and got to the right lane and we did what we've been doing in practice."

QB Jeff Ziemba was 11-of-15 passing for 124 yards and five touchdowns. RB Darrell Monroe made his season debut and had 10 carries for 64 yards and two touchdowns.

For San Diego, QB Derrick Bernard had 119 passing yards for three touchdowns. RB George Moreira Jr. had 11 carries for 55 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively for the Rattlers, LB Ricky Wyatt Jr. led the way with 8.5 total tackles and a sack. DB Davontae Merriweather and DB Dillion Winfrey both had an interception.

DB Omar Cook led the Strike Force defense with 4.5 tackles and an interception, and LB Mikell Mair had a fumble recovery.

The Rattlers started with the ball and Monroe made three straight runs, capped off with a 2-yard run into the end zone to give the Rattlers an early 7-0 lead.

After WR Jamal Miles returned a missed San Diego field goal attempt all the way to the Strike Force 20-yard line, Ziemba found Miles for a 20-yard touchdown pass to double the lead to 14-0.

On the next Strike Force drive, DL Connor Flagel forced a fumble, scooped up the loose ball, and took it 18 yards to the end zone.

The Strike Force would get on the board with 3:04 left in the first quarter with a Moreira 4-yard run.

After an unsuccessful San Diego onside kick attempt, Ziemba would connect with Miles again for a 6-yard touchdown pass to put Arizona up 28-7.

The Rattlers would try their own onside kick but San Diego would recover. The Strike Force would take advantage of the short field and score early in the second quarter on a 10-yard pass from Bernard to WR Julian Stafford.

Miles would help the Rattlers get that touchdown back as he returned the ensuing kickoff all the way to the San Diego 13-yard line before punching it in from 1 yard out two plays later.

Moreira would score on the first play on San Diego's next drive with a 41-yard carry.

The Rattlers answered immediately on their next possession as Ziemba threw a 34-yard strike to Miles for his third receiving touchdown of the game.

San Diego would cut the Rattlers lead to 14 as Moreira would score his third touchdown of the game with a 12-yard run.

Arizona would bump their lead back up to 21 as Monroe reached the end zone from 6 yards out.

Following an interception by Merriweather, Ziemba would find Miles for a 4-yard touchdown pass to put the Rattlers up 56-28 before halftime.

After a blocked Strike Force field goal attempt, Ziemba would throw his fifth touchdown pass of the game, completing a 24-yard strike to WR Jarrod Harrington.

QB Caleb Holbrook took over for Ziemba with 6:17 left in the third quarter and he would score on a 1-yard keeper to give the Rattlers a 70-28 lead.

San Diego would answer with a 37-yard touchdown pass from Bernard to WR David Carter.

Early in the fourth quarter, Holbrook would connect on a 5-yard pass to WR Sheldon Augustine for a Rattlers touchdown.

After a Strike Force interception, QB Jiha Vercher would fire a 36-yard touchdown pass to WR Marques Rodgers.

San Diego would get another turnover on a fumble recovery and Bernard would score on a 4-yard run. Vercher would then find Rodgers for a successful two-point conversion to make it 77-50 Arizona.

On the next Rattlers drive, Holbrook would connect with Augustine again for a touchdown, this time for 11 yards, to put Arizona up by 34.

With 37 seconds left, Rodgers would score on a 2-yard run and Vercher would connect with Moreira for another two points.

Augustine took the San Diego kickoff 50 yards to the end zone, giving the Rattlers an all-time high 91 points.

RATTLERS STOP THE SUGAR SKULLS; 55-41

TUCSON, ARIZ. – The Arizona Rattlers (6-0) kicked off their three-game road trip with a 55-41 victory over the Tucson Sugar Skulls (3-3) at the Tucson Convention Center on Sunday in front of 4,138 fans.

The Sugar Skulls kept it close through much of the game, but a blocked field goal by DE Chris McAllister that was recovered in the end zone by DB Dillion Winfrey, and a 45-yard interception return by DB Phillip Henry early in the fourth helped the Rattlers pull away.

"The receiver ran a slant, I saw the quarterback. I was in good position," said Henry. "I saw the quarterback throw it so I just jumped it and took it to the house."

"We blocked the field goal for the touchdown and then were able to fake the extra point and get back up and make up the missed extra point that we had," said General Manager and Head Coach Kevin Guy. "Then we had the interception for the touchdown. That was the difference of the game. I knew they were going to come out ready to play."

Tucson had the lead or was tied through much of the first half, but Arizona took a lead midway through the third and would not let up.

"I knew we were fighting against our mindset. After winning 63-28 (against Tucson in week four) we had the worst warmup in Rattler history before the game... We played that way in the first half," Guy said. "We had several mental miscues in the first half and then at halftime we went in and delivered a message. They received it and they came out and tightened things up."

Arizona's QB Jeff Ziemba completed 10-of-18 passes for 126 yards and four touchdowns. He also rushed for 38 yards on six attempts.

For Tucson, Jake Medlock completed 11 of his 23 attempts for 168 yards and three touchdowns. He also threw two interceptions.

The Rattlers defense was led by Davontae Merriweather who had 8.5 total tackles and an interception.

For the Sugar Skulls, defensive backs Cam Gaddis and Micah Eugene both led the team with six tackles each.

The Sugar Skulls got on the board first off of a one-yard run by QB Jake Medlock.

The Rattlers responded with a 2-yard touchdown run by RB Jabre Lolley to tie the score at 7 apiece.

Tucson regained the lead when Medlock threw a 41-yard touchdown pass to WR Rico Brown. The extra point from K Diego Marquez was good to make the score 14-7.

After a turnover on downs, and then a missed field goal, the Rattlers would again find the endzone after a 22-yard touchdown pass from Ziemba to WR Jarrod Harrington.

Arizona held Tucson to a field goal attempt by Marquez, which was missed, and took advantage off a six-yard touchdown pass from Ziemba to WR Jamal Miles.

The Sugar Skulls would again knot the game up at 21 on the next play from scrimmage when Medlock connected with WR Shaq Curenton from 38 yards and the score.

The Rattlers began the second half by quickly scoring off a one-yard run by Lolley, taking a 28-21 lead.

Tucson tied the game at 28 off a seven-play drive that was capped off by a one-yard touchdown run from Medlock.

Rattlers again took the lead on the next offensive play when Ziemba threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Harrington. The PAT was missed to make the score 34-28

Arizona would extend their lead after DE Chris McAllister blocked a field goal attempt by Marquez and was recovered in the end zone by DB Dillion Winfrey. Harrington rushed in for the two-point conversion to make the score 42-28.

The Sugar Skulls would pull within eight off of a 13-yard touchdown pass from Medlock to WR Rico Brown.

The Rattlers started to pull away when, on next drive, Ziemba connected with Miles for another 25-yard touchdown pass. Then, on Tucson's next drive, Medlock would be hit as he threw and the ball was intercepted by DB Phillip Henry and returned 45 yards for the score and a 20-point lead.

Tucson finally got back on the board after an eight-play drive that resulted in a one-yard run by Medlock. The PAT failed.

RATTLERS EARN TOP SPOT IN IFL WITH 52-14 WIN OVER STRIKE FORCE

SAN DIEGO – The Arizona Rattlers (7-0) have taken sole possession of first place with a 52-14 victory over the San Diego Strike Force (3-3) at the Pechanga Arena in San Diego Monday night.

The win puts the Rattlers on top of the Indoor Football League (IFL) after the Iowa Barnstormers (6-1) lost to the Sioux Falls Storm (6-1) this past Saturday.

Arizona trailed by seven early in the second, but their defense held San Diego scoreless for two and a half quarters and walked off the field with a commanding 38-point victory.

The Rattlers defense was led by DB Dillion Winfrey who had 7.5 tackles and two interceptions, the first of which was returned 30 yards for a touchdown, and the second ended the game. Arizona also had four sacks in the game, 1.5 by LB Ricky Wyatt Jr., one by Chris McAllister, and a half sack by Lance McDowdell.

Offensively for the Rattlers, QB Jeff Ziemba completed 11-of-20 for 152 yards and a touchdown. RB Roland Genesy got his first start and led the team on the ground with 75 yards on 12 attempts and three touchdowns.

For San Diego, QB Jihad Vercher completed 15 of his 30 attempts for 127-yards and a touchdown and led his team rushing with 14 yards on 14 attempts. He also threw three interceptions.

Rattlers got on the board first off of a 29-yard touchdown pass from Ziemba to WR Sheldon Augustine.

San Diego wrestled the lead away from Arizona after a successful eight-play drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown run by WR Marques Rodgers that pulled them within one. Then after a fourth down stop, the Strike Force scored off of a 10-yard pass from Jihad Vercher that was caught over the boards by WR Victor Dean. A 2-point conversion was completed by Rodgers to give San Diego a seven-point lead.

Arizona would take the lead back off of a couple touchdown runs by RB Roland Genesy, the first from four yards, the second from 18 yards.

The Rattlers would end the first half with a 22-yard field goal by K Jimmy Camacho, and would go into the locker room leading 24-14.

Arizona would receive the ball in the third quarter and would extend their lead off of a one-yard touchdown run by Genesy.

San Diego's next snap went over the head of QB Jihad Vercher and went out the back of the endzone for a safety.

Early in the fourth, Rattlers would extend their lead again when QB Caleb Holbrook rushed in one-yard for the score.

On San Diego's next possession, Vercher threw an interception to Winfrey who returned it 30-yards and the touchdown. WR Jarrod Harrington ran in the 2-point conversion to make it 46-14; Arizona.

The Rattlers added to their lead late in the fourth from a seven-yard pass from Holbrook to Harrington.

Arizona now has a two-game lead and the tie breaker over Sioux Falls for at least the second seed and a first-round bye in the playoffs. They still hold a one game lead overall in the IFL standings with this win after the Iowa Barnstormers (7-1) was able to squeak by the Tucson Sugar Skulls (3-5) tonight as well.

The Rattlers got an early lead and was able to stay at least two possessions ahead of the Storm throughout most of the game. Their offense, led by QB Jeff Ziemba, was able to score on 11 of their 12 possessions. Ziemba finished the game 15-of-21 for 180 yards and six touchdowns. RB Roland Genesy led the ground attack with 43 yards on 12 attempts and a touchdown. He also had a touchdown on special teams. Both WR Jarrod Harrington and Jamal Miles had three touchdowns each.

For Sioux Falls, QB Lorenzo Brown completed 13 of his 23 attempts for 208 yards and five touchdowns. He did throw one interception. Brown also led his team rushing with 25 yards on seven attempts.

Arizona's defense was again led by DB Dillion Winfrey with six tackles and an interception that was returned 28 yards. Defensive linemen Chris McAllister and Nikolaus D'Avanzo, and linebacker Ricky Wyatt Jr. each had a sack.

Rattlers got on the board first after taking advantage of a blocked field goal by DL Nikolaus D'Avanzo. Six plays later, WR Jarrod Harrington took the pitch from Ziemba and ran it in seven yards for the score.

The Storm was able to respond on the next play from scrimmage when QB Lorenzo Brown tossed the ball to WR Brandon Shepard, 34 yards for the score.

Arizona would score on back-to-back drives to take a two-score lead. The first, a 20-yard touchdown pass from Ziemba that took WR Jamal Miles over the wall. The second a 19-yard pass from Ziemba, also to Miles.

The Storm ended the first quarter with 30-yard touchdown pass from Brown to WR Damien Ford to pull within six.

The Rattlers again extended their lead off of a 13-yard pass from Ziemba to Harrington for the score.

After an interception by DB Dillion Winfrey, Arizona would add to their lead off of a 43-yard field goal by K Jimmy Camacho.

Sioux Falls pulled within nine when Lorenzo Brown completed a 20-yard pass to WR Kent Shelby with just over two minutes left in the half.

The Rattlers would close out the first half with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Ziemba to Harrington, his third of the game. Rattlers went into the locker room leading 37-21.

Arizona received the kick in the second half and took advantage with a five-play drive that was capped off by an 11-yard touchdown pass from Ziemba to Miles, his third of the game.

Sioux Falls got back on the scoreboard when Lorenzo Brown found Ford in the end zone, a 24-yard pass, for the score.

Rattlers again went up after a five play, 26-yard drive that would end with a two-yard touchdown run by Genesy.

With just over ten minutes left in the game, the Storm would pull within two possessions after an 11-yard touchdown pass from Brown to Ford.

Both teams traded field goals, Rattlers first with a 25-yarder from Camacho, followed by a K Douglas Parker 27-yarder.

With just over four minutes left in the fourth, Sioux Falls attempted an onside kick, but the kick was muffed and Genesy would scoop it up and return it for the score.

The Storm would again pull within two possessions, off of a 5-yard run by RB Tra'Von Chapman.

With only 10 seconds left, the Rattlers responded with a 24-yard field goal by Camacho.

Sioux Falls would score one last time with no time left on the clock off a 17-yard run by Cambell to make the final score 63-50.

RATTLERS ESCAPE DANGER; 56-46

PHOENIX – The league-leading Arizona Rattlers (9-0) maintained their hold on first place in the Indoor Football League (IFL) as they defeated the Nebraska Danger (5-5) 56-46 in front of 9,889 fans at Talking Stick Resort Arena on Saturday. The Rattlers remained one game ahead of the Iowa Barnstormers (8-1), who defeated the Cedar Rapids River Kings (1-9).

"I was pleased with the team that we found a way to overcome adversity two weeks in a row." Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy said. "Last week, we played two games within five days and we're a tired football team. This bye week comes at a good time."

QB Drew Powell made his Rattlers debut in relief of QB Jeff Ziemba early in the second quarter and went 8-of-10 passing for 96 yards, two touchdowns and an interception. He also had 11 carries for 63 yards and three touchdowns on the ground.

"It felt good to get back on the field with the team in an actual game which feels like forever now," Powell said. "It feels good to get out there with those guys and execute."

WR/RB Jamal Miles had two rushing touchdowns and one receiving touchdown, while WR Jarrod Harrington had a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown.

Nebraska QB Tommy Armstrong was 9-of-19 passing for 132 yards, three touchdowns and three interceptions. He also had eight rushes for 73 yards and two touchdowns on the ground. WR Johnny Jackson IV had four catches for 63 yards and two touchdowns, and RB Davonte Sapp-Lynch had 134 all-purpose yards, a rushing touchdown and a kickoff return touchdown.

On defense, Rattlers DL Lance McDowdell led the team with 4.5 total tackles and two tackles for loss. DB Allen Chapman had two interceptions and DB Dillion Winfrey also had an interception.

For Nebraska, LB Robert Haynes had eight total tackles, DB Najee Bright had an interception, and DB Brandon Roe forced a fumble.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Rattlers opened the second quarter with a 3-yard touchdown run by Miles.

The Danger answered as Armstrong found Jackson for a 10-yard pass to tie the game 7-7.

Powell put Arizona back on top as he threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to Harrington.

After an interception by Winfrey, Miles scored again on an 8-yard carry to give the Rattlers a 21-7 lead.

Sapp-Lynch returned the ensuing kickoff 52 yards to cut the Danger deficit to seven.

Harrington would restore the Arizona lead to 14 as he ran it in from 3 yards out with 11 seconds remaining in the half.

The Danger started the second half with the ball and Sapp-Lynch scored on a 13-yard run to make the score 28-20.

The Rattlers took advantage of a short field on their next possession with Powell finding the end zone on 7-yard run to increase their lead.

Following another Arizona interception, this time by Chapman, Powell got his second touchdown run of the game with an 18-yard carry.

Nebraska would rally for 18 unanswered points, starting with a 14-yard touchdown run by Armstrong.

After Bright intercepted a Powell pass in the end zone, the Danger would add six more points as Armstrong connected with Jackson again on a 17-yard pass.

Another Rattlers turnover led to the Danger pulling to within four as Armstrong found WR Eric Thomas for a 9-yard touchdown pass.

After a 23-yard completion to RB Darrell Monroe on fourth down, Powell would run it in from 4 yards out to put the Rattlers up by 11 with 7:40 to play.

Armstrong answered with a 27-yard touchdown run and then completed a pass to WR Gregory Dent Jr. for the two-point conversion to make the score 49-46 Arizona with 3:52 left in regulation.

Powell connected with Miles for a 15-yard touchdown pass on the next Rattlers possession to extend their lead to 10 with 1:48 left.

Chapman would make his second interception to end Nebraska's comeback bid and seal the win for Arizona.

RATTLERS STAY UNDEFEATED WITH BIG WIN OVER STRIKE FORCE; 84-63

SAN DIEGO – The Arizona Rattlers (10-0) maintain the top spot in the Indoor Football League (IFL) with an 84-63 victory over the San Diego Strike Force (1-10) at the Pechanga Arena in San Diego Sunday night.

The win means that the Rattlers have now gone 10 straight seasons with at least 10 wins, dating back to the 2010 season.

This was also General Manager and Head Coach Kevin Guy's 200th game as the Arizona Rattlers head coach.

The Rattlers offense did not miss a beat, scoring on every possession. QB Drew Powell completed 12-of-17 passes for 152 yards and four touchdowns. He also had led the team in rushing with 104 yards on 11 attempts and five touchdowns. RB Jabre Lolley also gained 83 yards on the ground and added a touchdown. WR Jamal Miles led the team in receiving with five catches for 70 yards and two touchdowns.

For the Strike Force, QB Jihad Vercher attempted 35 passes, completing 19 of them for 164 yards and six touchdowns. He also threw two interceptions. In addition, he led the team in rushing with 31 yards on eight attempts. WR Dominique Carson led the receivers for San Diego with 53 yards on five catches and a pair of touchdowns.

Defensively for the Rattlers, LB Davontae Merriweather led the team with 14 total tackles. Defensive Backs Phillip Henry and Allen Chapman each pulled in an interception.

San Diego received the opening kick off and took advantage, scoring off of a seven-play drive that was capped off by a five-yard touchdown pass by QB Jihad Vercher to WR Julian Stafford.

The Rattlers would quickly take the lead, first from a 42-yard touchdown run by Powell, then, following an interception by DB Allen Chapman, by a 26-yard touchdown pass from Powell to Lolley.

The Strike Force would tie the game back up after driving the ball down to Arizona's five-yard line, RB Dominique Larson would run it in for the score.

Arizona re-took the lead after a six-play drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown run by Lolley.

San Diego again knotted the game up from a 30-yard touchdown pass from Vercher to WR Dominique Carson.

Arizona again took little time scoring, taking only three plays, and finishing with a four-yard pass from Powell to WR Donta Armstrong.

The Strike Force tied the game up at 28 with just over a minute left in the half from an eight-yard pass from Vercher to WR George Morreira.

The ensuing kickoff was returned 50 yards by Robert Lewis to again give the Rattlers a seven-point lead.

San Diego answered back with a 14-yard pass from Vercher to WR Rashard Ridley for the score.

Jamal Miles got the final score of the half, catching a 20-yard pass from Powell to put the Rattlers up 42-35.

Arizona received the kickoff at the start of the second half and took only four plays to push the ball into the endzone off of a seven-yard run by Powell.

Marquis Rodgers pulled the Strike Force within seven with a two-yard touchdown run.

San Diego shortened the gap to within two scores when Vercher threw an eight-yard pass to WR David Carter.

Arizona would put the final points on the board off of a pitch from Powell to Lolley, who fumbled into the endzone and was recovered by OL Lamar Mady.

RATTLERS REMAIN UNDEFEATED AFTER TAKING DOWN TUCSON; 62-47

Tucson, Ariz – The Arizona Rattlers (11-0) defeated the Tucson Sugar Skulls (6-6) 62-47 for the third time this season to stay in control of their own destiny with the Indoor Football League regular season winding down.

The victory clinched the season series over the Sugar Skulls as the Rattlers have now won three of the first four meetings between their intrastate rivals. They will face the Sugar Skulls one final time this season at the Talking Stick Resort Arena on June 8th.

WR Jarrod Harrington finished with a career-high 114 receiving yards and three scores. He also added a kickoff return for a touchdown, his first special teams score of the season.

Defensively, both DL Lance McDowdell and Nik D'Avanzo each finished with four tackles and one TFL. DB Allen Chapman also forced a fumble that was eventually recovered by Tucson. The Rattlers held the Sugar skulls to only 69 yards rushing and 157 passing yards on 31 attempts.

The Sugar Skulls were led by QB Jake Medlock who threw for 156 yards and five scores in the defeat. He also led the team with 54 rushing yards. WR Shaq Curenton and Jeremiah Harris each hauled in two touchdown receptions versus the Rattlers.

Defensively, they were led by Keith Jones Jr. who finished with two tackles and one for loss. Former Arizona Rattler Edward Mosley added a tackle for loss and Emmanuel Roker led the Skulls with three tackles.

The Sugar Skulls first drive ended with a 22-yard touchdown pass from QB Jake Medlock to Jeremiah Harris early in the first quarter to claim a 6-0 lead.

Arizona would answer quickly on their first offensive possession with a touchdown strike from QB Drew Powell to Peoria, Arizona native Jamal Miles to gain a 7-6 lead.

Tucson's next drive would conclude with a successful field goal attempt by Josh Gable after a tackle for loss by DB Devin Cockrell to reclaim the lead, 9-7.

Aided by an illegal defense penalty, the Rattlers would find pay dirt on another reception by Jamal Miles to give them a 14-9 advantage.

On the ensuing possession, the Sugar Skulls would turn the ball over on downs after a defensive stand by the Rattlers that included a shoestring tackle by DL Chris McAllister.

The Rattlers would respond a few plays later on another touchdown pass from Powell, this time to Jarrod Harrington to push the lead to 12 points in the second quarter.

The Skulls would threaten in the red zone, but they failed to find the end zone after a tackle for loss by DL Nik D'Avanzo. Tucson would settle for another field goal by Gable to cut the lead to nine points a few minutes before halftime.

Harrington, however, would take the ensuing kickoff 50-yards to the house for his second touchdown of the game, giving Arizona a 28-12 advantage.

In their final possession before halftime, Medlock would connect with WR Shaq Curenton for a touchdown to narrow the deficit to nine points.

Kicker Jimmy Camacho's field goal attempt was missed wide left as time expired in the first half as the Rattlers would go into the locker room with a 28-19 lead.

The Rattlers started the second half with possession of the football and Powell would find Harrington a few plays later for the second time in the end zone to extend the lead to 35-19.

The Sugar Skulls were forced to kick a long field goal try on their ensuing possession that was missed wide left.

Just a few plays later, Powell would hook up with Harrington again for another touchdown to give the Rattlers a 41-19 lead late in the third quarter.

Tucson would answer the Rattlers touchdown with one of their own on a short reception by receiver Shaq Curenton to get within 16 points late in the third.

Arizona would march right down the field and score again, this time on a keeper by Drew Powell to extend the lead to 23 points early in the fourth period.

The Skulls would get back on the score board a few plays later on a touchdown reception by Jeremiah Harris to trim the lead back down to 16 points.

However, Powell would find the end zone again with his legs to extend the lead back up to 23 points with 10 minutes remaining.

Medlock would connect with Rico Brown a few snaps later for another short touchdown reception to get within 55-39.

A solid kick return by Jamal Miles would set the Rattlers up in favorable field position. RB Jabre Lolley would punch it in from a few yards out, further extending the lead.

The Skulls would score one final time on a touchdown pass by QB Matt Behrendt with 20 seconds left.

RATTLERS SHUT OUT RIVER KINGS; 56-0

Cedar Rapids, Iowa – The Arizona Rattlers (12-0) defeated the Cedar Rapids River King (1-11) 56-0 to stay undefeated in the Indoor Football League (IFL).

The win gives the Rattlers a first-round bye in the 2019 IFL Playoffs, and home field advantage for the Conference Championship. Arizona and the Iowa Barnstormers (11-1) are both still in contention to clinch home field throughout.

The Rattlers defense was the story of the game. Arizona did not allow a score for the first time in team history. The closest Arizona ever came to a shutout was June 2nd, 1994, when the Rattlers defeated the Las Vegas Sting 50-7.

DL Nik D'Avanzo led the defensive front with eight total tackles, 4.5 tackles for a loss, 2.5 sacks, a pass breakup, a fumble recovery, and a blocked field goal. DL Lance McDowdell also recorded 1.5 sacks, and blocked a field goal. As for the secondary, DB/LB Davontae Merriweather had eight tackles, one for a loss, and an interception which was returned for a touchdown. DB Kamron Johnson also hauled in a pick.

On offense, QB Drew Powell completed four-of-six passes for 70 yards and a touchdown. He also ran for 38 yards and another score. RB Roland Genesy led the team on the ground with 60 yards on 11 attempts for three touchdowns.

For Cedar Rapids, quarterbacks Dalton Oliver and Ben Wilkerson combined 9-of-22 passing for 80 yards and no touchdowns. Each threw an interception.

Cedar Rapids received the initial kickoff but were held to a field goal attempt that was blocked by DL Lance McDowdell. The Rattlers took advantage and three plays later, Powell would run it 10 yards for the score.

The River Kings were again forced into a field goal attempt on their second possession, which was missed wide-right. Arizona would then extend their lead to 14 off of a one-yard run by RB Roland Genesy.

Cedar Rapids again attempted a field goal on their third possession, this one was blocked by DL Nik D'Avanzo, and recovered by DB Phillip Henry. The Rattlers would take only five plays to score again, this time a one-yard run by Genesy.

The River Kings fourth possession resulted in a missed field goal, this one wide-right. Two plays later, Powell completed a pass for 45 yards and the touchdown.

Cedar Rapids failed to score on their final possession of the half to make the score 28-0; Rattlers.

Arizona defense did not let down in the second half. On the River Kings first possession of the second half, QB Oliver Dalton's pass was intercepted by LB/DB Davontae Merriweather who returned it 26 yards for the score.

Cedar Rapids next possession resulted in a field goal attempt where, a botched snap gave the River Kings six yard-line. The Rattlers would score two plays later off of a one-yard run from WR Jamal Miles.

Arizona would score on the last play of the third quarter, when LB Ryan Langford forced a fumble on QB Ben Wilkerson, which was recovered by Cockrell, who returned it 38 yards for a touchdown.

The Rattlers would score one final time, a four-yard scamper from Genesy, to put the Rattlers up 56-0

RATTLERS RALLY PAST SUGAR SKULLS IN OVERTIME; 50-49

PHOENIX – The league-leading Arizona Rattlers (13-0) overcame a 21-point deficit to defeat the Tucson Sugar Skulls 50-49 in overtime in front of 13,755 fans at Talking Stick Resort Arena on Saturday.

The victory kept the Rattlers in front of the Iowa Barnstormers (12-1) for first place and home field throughout the Indoor Football League (IFL) playoffs.

Facing their in-state rival for the fourth time this season, the Rattlers faced their biggest deficit of the season as they trailed the Sugar Skulls 35-14 with 48 seconds remaining in the first half.

"We just had a lot of adversity tonight and we had to overcome," Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy said. "I think it said something about our character that we found a way to win."

Rattlers QB Drew Powell was 13-of-20 passing for 158 yards and four touchdowns. He also ran for 29 yards, including the game-winning two-point conversion in overtime.

"We had that two-point play in our back pocket for that situation," Powell said. "Once we knew we had to score, we had our play ready to go so as soon as we scored we knew we were going to go ahead and go for two."

"I wasn't going to put that on our kicker, not after we lost last year," Guy said. "We want home-field advantage and we want it to go through the desert."

WR Dez Stewart led the Arizona receivers with 55 receiving yards and two touchdowns. WR Jarrod Harrington did not record a catch, but did have a 50-yard kickoff return touchdown that helped get the Rattlers comeback started.

"That kickoff return, that was a big play on our special teams unit that sparked us right back up," Harrington said.

Tucson QB Jake Medlock was 17-of-25 passing for 190 yards and two touchdowns, along with 66 rushing yards and three touchdowns on the ground. WR Jeremiah Harris had eight catches for 96 yards and a touchdown.

The Rattlers defense was led by DB Phillip Henry, would had nine solo tackles. LB Ryan Langford had a sack and 2.5 tackles for loss.

LB Zach Allen led the Sugar Skulls with six solo tackles. LB Dee Maggitt Jr. had an interception, while DL Rayshawn Henderson and DL Keith Jones Jr. combined for a sack.

The Rattlers got the ball first and immediately scored on the first play from scrimmage as Powell found Stewart for a 28-yard touchdown pass.

The Sugar Skulls answered as Medlock scored on an 8-yard run to tie the game 7-7.

Following a turnover on down by Arizona, Tucson took the lead on a 5-yard run by Medlock.

The Rattlers tied the game on the last play of the first quarter as Stewart punched it in from 2 yards out.

Medlock found Harris for a 40-yard touchdown pass to put the Sugar Skulls back on top 21-14.

After a Rattlers touchdown was erased by an offensive holding penalty on fourth down, K Jimmy Camacho missed a 29-yard field goal attempt, keeping the deficit at seven.

The Sugar Skulls extended their lead on a fake field goal try as QB Matt Behrendt completed a 5-yard pass to WR Shadrach Thornton for a touchdown. K Josh Gable made the point-after attempt to make the score 28-14.

Following an interception by Maggitt, Medlock connected with WR Rico Brown for an 8-yard touchdown to increase the Sugar Skulls lead to 21.

On the ensuing kickoff, Harrington returned the kickoff 50 yards to pull the Rattlers back to within 14.

After a Langford sack that resulted in a Sugar Skulls turnover on downs, Powell found RB Jabre Lolley for a 10-yard touchdown pass. Camacho missed the extra point, bringing the score to 35-27 Tucson.

Following another Rattlers stop, Harrington would score from 7 yards out to pull Arizona within two. The Rattlers lined up for a point-after kick, but Harrington took the snap and ran it in for the two-point conversion to tie the game.

Medlock rushed for his third touchdown of the game on the first play of the fourth quarter, a 28-yar carry, to give Tucson the lead again.

Arizona would answer on a 6-yard touchdown pass from Powell to WR Anthony Amos to tie the game, 42-42.

Tucson drove down the field on their next possession, getting as deep as the Arizona 2-yard line. However, the Rattlers would come up with another defensive stand and forced another turnover on downs, taking over on their own 9-yard line with 1:16 left in regulation.

Arizona faced a 3rd-and-20, where Powell completed a 19-yard pass to Lolley. However, the Rattlers could not convert on fourth down and the Sugar Skulls took over with nine seconds to play.

After a Medlock incompletion, Gable lined up for a 50-yard field goal attempt, which missed wide left, and forced the game into overtime.

Tucson got the ball first in overtime and scored on a 4-yard run by RB Mike Jones. Gable kicked the extra point to make the score 49-42 Tucson.

On Arizona's overtime possession, Powell hit Stewart for a 7-yard touchdown to make it 49-48. The Rattlers decided to go for the two-point conversion, and Powell successfully rushed it in to give Arizona the 50-49 win.

RATTLERS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED REGULAR SEASON WITH WIN OVER STRIKE FORCE; 57-16

PHOENIX – The six-time World Champion Arizona Rattlers (14-0) completed their first undefeated regular season in franchise history on Saturday, defeating the San Diego Strike Force (1-13) in front of 14,036 fans at Talking Stick Resort Arena.

In addition to finishing the 2019 Indoor Football League (IFL) regular season undefeated, the Rattlers will have home field throughout the playoffs. Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy credited the work of the entire organization, especially the players.

"They're the ones who got it done on the field so I'm very proud of the players," Guy said. "We still got two more to go but we're proud that it's coming through the desert."

QB Drew Powell was 12-of-16 passing for 151 yards and two touchdowns, and also rushed for two touchdowns.

"It's a whole new season we get to start. We get to go attack it and we get to start fresh," Powell said about playing in the postseason.

RB Roland Genesy Jr. led the rushing attack for Arizona, carrying the ball 13 times for 100 yards and a touchdown.

San Diego QB Jihad Vercher was 11-for-28 passing for 93 yards and two touchdowns. RB Dominique Carson had 61 rushing yards, and WR Marques Rodgers and WR David Carter each caught a touchdown for the Strike Force.

Defensively, Rattlers DL Connor Flagel had two sacks and three tackles for loss, while DB Dillion Winfrey had five solo tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss.

DB Omar Cook led the Strike Force with eight solo tackles, while Rodgers and DB E.J. Johnson each had a fumble recovery.

After holding the Strike Force to a missed field goal by K Ernesto Lacayo on the first possession, the Rattlers opened the scoring with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Powell to WR/RB Jamal Miles. K Jimmy Camacho kicked the extra point to make it 7-0 Rattlers.

Following another San Diego missed field goal attempt, Arizona drove 45 yards down the field and capped it off with a 13-yard touchdown run by Powell to extend the lead.

The Strike Force got on the board with 6:30 left in the second quarter on a successful 28-yard field goal try by Lacayo.

The Rattlers increased their lead to 21-3 as Powell scored on a 1-yard keeper.

On the ensuing kickoff, Arizona went for an onside kick and successfully recovered the ball. The first play on the following drive resulted in a 38-yard touchdown pass from Powell to WR Anthony Amos.

The Rattlers started the second half with the ball and added seven more points to the lead on a 6-yard carry by Genesy.

The Strike Force got their first touchdown on a 24-yard completion from Vercher to Carter, making the score 35-9 Rattlers.

QB Jeff Ziemba entered the game and completed a 36-yard touchdown pass to Amos. The extra point attempt by Camacho was blocked but WR Jarrod Harrington recovered the football and rushed into the end zone for a two-point conversion.

Miles scored again, this time on an 8-yard run, to increase the Rattlers lead to 50-9.

San Diego answered with a 12-yard touchdown pass from Vercher to Rodgers.

RATTLERS UNITED BOWL BOUND AFTER DISMANTLING DANGER; 62-45

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The six-time World Champion Arizona Rattlers (15-0) moved one step closer to their seventh title on Saturday as they defeated the Nebraska Danger (8-8) 62-45 in the Intense Conference Championship in front of 13,579 fans at Gila River Arena.

The win sends the Rattlers to the 2019 United Bowl where they will face the Sioux Falls Storm (12-3) in a rematch of the championship game from 2017. Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy commended his players on their efforts in the win.

"I'm extremely proud of the guys," Guy said. "We came out and started fast, that's what we wanted to do. Jump on these guys fast and execute."

Now the focus shifts to Sioux Falls, who will make their 10th consecutive appearance in the United Bowl after eliminating the Iowa Barnstormers (12-3) 52-50 on Saturday.

"It says something about the leadership in their organization and how they always get to this game every season," Guy said. "I think we're seven out of the last nine in getting to the championship so you're looking at two of the best franchises in the country. It's going to be a great matchup."

QB Drew Powell and RB Jabre Lolley each had three rushing touchdowns for Arizona in the win. Powell also went 12-for-16 passing for 110 yards and two touchdowns.

For Nebraska, QB Tommy Armstrong went 11-for-21 passing for 110 yards, five touchdowns. WR Eric Thomas caught four touchdown passes and had 42 receiving yards.

Defensively, DB Dillion Winfrey and DB Davontae Merriweather both had an interception for the Rattlers, while DL Nikolaus D'Avanzo had 2.5 tackles for loss.

DB Gregory Dent Jr. led the Danger with six solo tackles. DL Chris Martin had one tackle for loss.

After Nebraska's first drive came to an end with an interception by Winfrey, Arizona drove down the field and scored the game's first touchdown on a 3-yard run by Lolley.

The Rattlers got the ball back on another interception by Merriweather, and Powell hit WR Jarrod Harrington with a 14-yard pass one play later to make the score 14-0.

The Danger answered with a 49-yard kickoff return by WR Mike Tatum.

Arizona bumped their lead back to 14 early in the second quarter with a 3-yard carry by Powell.

Nebraska responded as Armstrong found Thomas for an 18-yard touchdown pass.

Powell connected with Harrington for a 9-yard touchdown pass to put the Rattlers ahead 28-14.

The next Danger drive resulted in a successful 38-yard field goal by K Diego Marquez to cut the Rattlers lead to 11.

Lolley got his second rushing touchdown with an 8-yard run to put Arizona ahead 35-17.

The Rattlers got the second-half kickoff and Powell scored on a 30-yard run to increase the lead.

Armstrong completed a 2-yard touchdown pass to Thomas, but the two-point conversion failed to make the score 42-23.

Powell added another rushing touchdown, this time from 7-yards out, to put Arizona up by 26.

Armstrong connected with WR Johnny Jackson IV for a 20-yard touchdown pass, then completed a pass to Thomas for a successful two-point conversion to make it 49-31.

The Rattlers scored again on the ground with a 4-yard touchdown run by Miles to add to the lead.

Nebraska replied with a 5-yard pass from Armstrong to Thomas, but failed on the two-point attempt to put the score at 56-37 with 6:35 left in the game.

On their next drive, Arizona used up almost five minutes before punching it in on a 2-yard carry by Lolley.

Armstrong found Thomas for another passing touchdown, a 10-yard completion, and RB Davonte Sapp-Lynch ran in the two-point try with 26 seconds left

RATTLERS LOSE TO STORM IN 2019 UNITED BOWL; 56-53

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The Arizona Rattlers (15-1) suffered their first loss of the 2019 Indoor Football League (IFL) season, losing to the Sioux Falls Storm (14-3) 56-53 in the 2019 United Bowl in front of 14,635 fans at Gila River Arena.

Rattlers QB Drew Powell completed 16-of-21 passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns, while also rushing for another two touchdowns. However, he was sacked three times by the Storm defense.

"They did a good job of keying him and scheming him," Head Coach and General Manager Kevin Guy said. "At the end of the day, we missed some reads up front and they had a good little scheme put together."

WR Jarrod Harrington had 220 all-purpose yards in the game and scored two touchdowns, including a 58-yard kickoff return score that put Arizona ahead 45-42 in the third quarter.

"We didn't execute," Harrington said. "We didn't make the right read sometimes. There were a couple of times we didn't make the catch we were supposed to make or get the blocks we were supposed to make."

Storm QB Lorenzo Brown Jr. was 15-of-19 passing for 200 yards and five touchdowns. WR Brandon Sheperd had six catches for 115 yards, a receiving touchdown, and a rushing touchdown. WR Kent Shelby had two touchdown catches.

DB Dillion Winfrey led the Rattlers defense with 13 solo tackles, DB Allen Chapman had a forced fumble, and DL Chris McAllister and LB Ryan Langford had half a sack each.

For Sioux Falls, LB T.J Neal led the team with seven solo tackles, two sacks, three tackles for loss, and a forced fumble. DL Charles Williams added 1.5 tackles for loss and half a sack.

"It's going to take me a while to get over this one, but more so I hate it for my teammates," Harrington added. "We all worked so hard, day in and day out, and we didn't finish."

The Storm got the ball first and opened the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown pass from Brown to WR Damian Ford.

The Rattlers answered back with a 3-yard touchdown run by Harrington to tie the game at 7.

On the ensuing kickoff, Chapman forced a fumble that WR Dez Stewart recovered deep in Sioux Falls territory. Two plays later, WR/RB Jamal Miles punched it in from 2 yards out to give Arizona the lead.

Sioux Falls countered with a 40-yard strike from Brown to Sheperd.

In the second quarter, the Rattlers converted on fourth-and-goal from the Storm 1-yard line as Powell ran it in to give Arizona a 21-14 lead.

After a turnover was negated by a Rattlers penalty, Sheperd scored on an 11-yard run to tie the game for the third time in the first half.

The Rattlers pulled ahead again on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Powell to WR Anthony Amos.

Brown ran it in from 6 yards out to even the score at 28-28 in the final minute of the first half.

Arizona K Jimmy Camacho successfully kicked a 31-yard field goal at the horn to put the Rattlers up by three at halftime.

The Rattlers got the ball to start the second half and scored on an 8-yard pass from Powell to Miles to increase their lead to 10.

Sioux Falls responded as Brown found Shelby for a 3-yard touchdown pass. Despite a Storm penalty that pushed the extra-point try back 10 yards, K Parker Douglass converted the kick to make it 38-35.

Following a Rattlers turnover on downs, the Storm drove down the field and took the lead on a 2-yard touchdown run by RB Calen Campbell.

Harrington returned the next kickoff 58 yards for a touchdown to immediately give Arizona the lead back.

Sioux Falls recaptured the lead early in the fourth quarter as Brown connected with Campbell for a 26-yard touchdown pass.

After the Storm defense forced and recovered a fumble, Shelby caught a 9-yard touchdown pass from Brown to extend the Sioux Falls lead.

With 52.9 seconds left, Powell ran it in from 11 yards out for a touchdown. Following a Sioux Falls penalty on a failed two-point conversion, RB Jabre Lolley scored on the second try to pull the Rattlers within three.
