QUICK HITS

Snake Pit Starpower: Tonight's matchup features the two QBs who are the IFL's two most recent Offensive Players of the Week. Tucson QB Demry Croft won the award for his efforts in Week 6 and Arizona QB Drew Powell took the honors for his Week 7 performance against Green Bay. The Offensive Player of the Week award is the sixth of Powell's IFL career and he is the first Rattler this season to be selected for the honors. It's Powell's first time winning the award since Week 14 of the 2018 season, when he went on to become the IFL MVP, playing in Iowa for current Tucson Head Coach Dixie Wooten.

Perfection on the Line: Rattlers Head Coach Kevin Guy is undefeated (2-0) in all-time matchups against the Sugar Skulls, both in 2019. Sugar Skulls Head Coach Dixie Wooten is undefeated (4-0) in all-time matchups against Guy and the Rattlers. The two have not faced each other since 2018, when Wooten's then-team, Iowa, went on to win the United Bowl.

RATTLERS TEAM AND SERIES NOTES

If You Can't Beat 'Em, Join Em': Rattlers kicker Ernesto Lacayo is a 10-year veteran in pro football, having played in leagues such as the IFL, AFL and XFL. Across his career, Lacayo has played against the Rattlers more times than any other franchise, with his teams going 0-for-17 against Arizona. Rattlers QB/WRs Coach, Hurtis Chinn was teammates with Lacayo on the Nebraska Danger (IFL, 2011).

Snake Pit Success: In 2019, the Rattlers went (8-0) at home during the regular season. Since 2014, Arizona is (50-7) at the Snake Pit.

Wild, Wild West: Six expansion teams have joined the IFL in 2021, including four on the west coast: Northern AZ, Duke City (NM), Spokane (WA) and Frisco (TX), as well as Massachusetts (MA) and Louisville (KY) in the east. In 2022, the IFL will add franchises in Columbus (OH) and Las Vegas (NV).

Championship Reunion: In 2018, current Rattlers QB Drew Powell led the Iowa Barnstormers to their first ever United Bowl championship, and was named the IFL MVP that year. His head coach during that historic season was current Sugar Skulls head coach Dixie Wooten.

Ground & Pound: In the Rattlers' most recent game against Green Bay, QB Drew Powell turned 15 carries into 109 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns. The performance was Powell's sixth career 100+ yard rushing game and the 109 rushing yards were the second-highest single-game total of his career. Powell ranks 1st in the IFL in rushing yards per game (73.0), rushing touchdowns (8) and yards per carry (7.8), among qualifying players. He also ranks 2nd in total scoring (18.0 PPG). In his 2018 IFL MVP season, Powell led the league with 945 rushing yards; the most ever by an IFL quarterback in a single season.

Kevin Guy
President, Head Coach

The 2021 season will be Kevin Guy's 20th season coaching Indoor/Arena football, and his 12th as the Rattlers Head Coach. Guy also enters his first year as president of the team, after spending 15 seasons as the Rattlers' general manager.

On March 31, 2019, Guy earned his 200th career victory as a head coach as the Rattlers defeated the Sioux Falls Storm, 58-40.

In 2017, Guy led the Rattlers to a 50-41 win over the Sioux Falls Storm in the United Bowl, capturing the Rattlers sixth championship in franchise history.

In 2015, Guy was nominated for the AFL Hall of fame and was inducted into the University of West Alabama Hall of Fame.

In 2014, Guy led one of the AFL's most-storied franchises to its fourth consecutive ArenaBowl appearance and third straight world championship, a 72-32 victory over the Cleveland Gladiators. The Rattlers posted an AFL-record 14 straight victories to start the season, and ended the regular season at 15-3 and going undefeated on their home turf at Ak-Chin Field at US Airways Center.

Guy's offense in 2014 was explosive, scoring 164 touchdowns and averaging a league-leading 63.9 points per game. The Rattlers offense under Guy was led by its opposing pass offense that threw for over 5,000 yards and averaged a staggering 8.4 yards per attempt.

In 2013, Guy led the Rattlers to its third consecutive ArenaBowl appearance and second straight world championship, a 48-39 victory over the Philadelphia Soul. The Rattlers posted a then AFL-record 18 victories (first set by the team in 2011).

Under Guy, Arizona's offense led the league in scoring with 170 touchdowns and averaging 66.8 points per game. The Rattlers also fielded one of the league's most stingy defenses, allowing only 48.1 points per game, second to Philadelphia's 46.6. Guy also saw eight of his players receive All-Arena honors, including two first-teamers.

In 2012, Guy led Arizona to its first ArenaBowl championship in more than a decade. The Rattlers won 16 games, earning back-to-back West Division and National Conference championships. The offense scored 158 touchdowns during the regular season and averaged 62.1 points per game, while the defense forced 45 turnovers and allowed 48.9 points per game.

Guy's 2011 team piled up 160 touchdowns during the regular season, averaging 61.9 points per game. The defense, meanwhile, forced 54 turnovers for a plus-34 turnover ratio – the best in the AFL – while holding opposing teams to 46.4 points per game. While the Rattlers would make their first ArenaBowl appearance since 2004, they would come up short in the final seconds, losing 73-70 to the Jacksonville Sharks.

An arenafootball2 Hall of Fame inductee, Guy has proven to be a consistent winner, owning a .726 winning percentage (122-46) as a head coach. In 2011, he was named NFL Network Coach of the Year.

Guy joined the Rattlers on Aug. 10, 2007. He had been serving as defensive coordinator for the San Jose SaberCats, which had just won ArenaBowl XXI. The Rattlers, meanwhile, were coming off the second-worst record in the league (4-12). Guy immediately went to work. He retained only three players from the 2007 team and began the 2008 season with nine rookies and seven second-year players. Arizona would win four more games over the previous year and host a first-round playoff game against Grand Rapids. Guy finished second in voting for AFL Coach of the Year, one of only four coaches to receive votes for the award. In 2010, the Rattlers would post their first winning season (10-6) since 2004 and reach the National Conference semifinals, losing 57-49 to the Spokane Shock.

While the AFL reorganized in 2009, Guy continued his duties with the Rattlers and served as a consultant to the general manager and head coach of the Rio Grande Valley Dorados (af2). Guy assisted with all aspects of the organization, including business and football operations. With the help of Guy's advisement, Rio Grande Valley returned to the af2 playoffs after failing to reach the postseason the previous year.

Guy left the af2 with the most wins in the history of the league when he joined the SaberCats in 2005. His 52 victories came in his four seasons, an average of 13 wins per season. He picked up a Coach of the Year award along the way and finished with a .732 winning percentage while leading the Tennessee Valley Vipers (2002-04) and Dorados (2005).

In 2005, Guy led the Texas-based Dorados to a 10-6 regular-season record and a trip to the league's National Conference championship game. The Dorados' last victory that season, a 65-42 decision over Tulsa in the playoffs, lifted him to the top of the league's coaching leaders.

With Tennessee Valley, Guy's teams won 39 of 48 regular-season games and claimed a division title each season. In 2003, the Vipers won their first 14 games and reached the conference championship game. Guy would be named Coach of the Year.

Guy's teams consistently were ranked near the top of all major statistical categories during his tenure as an af2 coach. He had 31 players advance from the af2, with five joining the National Football League. He had 14 players earn All-af2 recognition.

In 2001, Guy became the defensive coordinator for the AFL's Florida Bobcats, where his defense limited opposing teams to fewer than 30 points per game twice and forced 26 turnovers. Florida also averaged six defensive stops per game.

Guy joined the coaching ranks after an AFL playing career that lasted four seasons. He began the 2000 season as the defensive coordinator of the New Jersey Red Dogs. At 26, he was elevated to interim head coach for the last four games. His team was ranked fourth in the AFL in total defense and fifth in pass defense. Over those final four games, the Red Dogs averaged almost 10 more points per game than over the first 10 games.

As a player, Guy spent four seasons with the Minnesota Fighting Pike (1996), the Red Dogs (1997-99) and the Orlando Predators (1999), primarily as a wide receiver and defensive back. He helped the Predators reach ArenaBowl XIII.

Guy attended the University of West Alabama from 1991 to 1995. He was born Dec. 6, 1972, in Birmingham, Alabama.
